Information on Sintana

The Sintana Group holds a portfolio of direct and indirect interests in high-impact assets in multiple jurisdictions and basins. Specifically, this includes interests in eight licences in two countries, Namibia and Uruguay, as well as a pending indirect interest in a licence in Angola (and legacy assets in Colombia and The Bahamas), thus providing diversified exposure to a range of geologic plays, basins, operators, regulators, jurisdictions and geopolitical regimes. The portfolio is anchored by an indirect interest in the significant discoveries at Mopane (contained in petroleum exploration licence (“PEL”) 83 in the Orange Basin, Namibia), together with additional high-impact exploration catalysts across multiple other assets.

The Board believes that the Sintana Group’s portfolio of interests has the following attributes:

A diversified portfolio

- Interests in eight licences in two countries, Namibia and Uruguay, as well as a pending interest in a licence in Angola (and legacy assets in Colombia and The Bahamas), thus providing diversified exposure to a range of geologic plays, basins, operators, regulators, jurisdictions and geopolitical regimes. The portfolio is anchored by an interest in the significant discoveries at Mopane (PEL 83, Orange Basin, Namibia), together with additional high-impact exploration catalysts across multiple other assets.

Exposure to near-term high value activity

- The Sintana Group’s portfolio is currently focussed on Namibia and Uruguay – both jurisdictions considered to be global exploration “hot spots”, where significant exploration activity, including seismic campaigns and well drilling, is expected to continue over the next 24 months.

Established partnerships in place

- In Namibia, the Sintana Group holds interests in licences benefitting from established partnerships with well-regarded operators including Chevron, Galp, Pancontinental and NAMCOR. In Uruguay, the Sintana Group is partnered with Chevron on the AREA OFF-1 block and in Angola, the Sintana Group will be partnered with Corcel plc on the KON-16 block (subject to completion of the transaction to acquire an interest in that block).

Reduced capital exposure through carries

- The Sintana Group’s strategy is to create and maintain a portfolio of its interests that are predominantly carried through exploration, appraisal and development by experienced, international operators, thereby providing the Sintana Group’s shareholders with exposure to projects and prospects where comparatively limited capital is required from Sintana. Currently, the Sintana Group benefits from full or partial carried interest positions in relation to four of its five offshore licence interests in Namibia (including on PEL 83 where the Mopane discoveries have been made), as well as on AREA OFF-1 in Uruguay.

Execution capability

- The Sintana Group considers that it has strong technical and commercial capabilities that can be brought to bear on managing its portfolio and ultimately creating significant returns. In particular, Sintana has a board and management team with deep sector experience and expertise.

Scale and funding efficiency

- Sintana’s market capitalisation on Admission is expected to be approximately £107 million, offering a scaled, differentiated player in the “small-cap” exploration space, with significant carry support on key licences, cash and liquid resources in excess of US$10 million, and an improved capacity to access funding as and when required or opportune to fully exploit its existing portfolio and strategically grow its business.

Potential realisation opportunities

- The Sintana Group's portfolio provides exposure to highly prospective exploration prospects and, in the case of Mopane, discoveries of significant scale. The resulting ability to potentially realise multiple value uplifts from prospect to discovery via monetisation (including sale or divestment of key assets) significantly enhances the opportunities for shareholder returns.

Summary Portfolio

Sintana Group's portfolio currently comprises of:

- indirect interests in four large, highly prospective PELs in the Orange Basin, offshore Namibia, including an indirect carried interest in PEL 83, home of the Mopane discoveries that were made in 2023 and 2024, as well as indirect interests in PELs 79, 87 and 90;
- an indirect interest in one PEL offshore Namibia in the Walvis Basin (PEL 82), and one PEL onshore Namibia in the Waterberg Basin (PEL 103);
- direct interests in two offshore blocks in Uruguay, being AREA OFF-1 in the Punta del Este Basin and AREA OFF-3 in the Pelotas Basin (these interests having become part of the Sintana Group's portfolio on completion of the acquisition of the Challenger Group on 16 December 2025 (the "Acquisition"));
- an indirect interest in the KON-16 licence in the onshore Kwanza Basin in Angola (subject to completion of the transaction to acquire that interest, which was entered into by Sintana in May 2025, with completion expected in H1 2026); and
- legacy assets onshore in the Middle Magdalena Basin, Colombia, and offshore The Bahamas.

Uruguay Update

On 10 December 2025, the Uruguayan Ministry of Environment issued permits to four seismic vendors to enable seismic acquisition in the territorial waters of Uruguay, following an extensive consultation and permitting process. On 17 December 2025, the Company received notification of a legal action that has been initiated by two local Uruguayan environmental groups, seeking to enjoin all licencees of the Uruguayan offshore O&G industry from conducting any work relating to their licenses, including seismic acquisition, as a preliminary measure to a determination as to the validity of licences issued by the Uruguayan State. The legal action has named ANCAP (the Uruguayan regulator and national oil company), every industry participant in Uruguay (including the Company and Chevron) and the four approved seismic vendors as respondents. The judge declined to consider the injunction request on an ex parte basis, and has instead ordered the industry to submit responses, which are due on 26 December 2025. The Group considers the proceedings to be without merit, and is working alongside ANCAP, Chevron and other industry participants to respond accordingly. Thereafter, the judge will determine the appropriate course for further hearings (if any) and ultimate resolution of the matter – further updates will be provided as appropriate.

Proposed share issuance for severance

By way of update to the announcement dated 9 December 2025, Sintana announces that it now propose to issue an aggregate of 2,512,943 common shares in the capital of the Company (the "Severance Shares") at a deemed issue price of CDN$0.52 to the below directors and officers (the "Recipients") of Sintana and Challenger in lieu of all or part of the severance payments totalling CDN$1,417,030 owing to same as a result of their loss of office or directorship in connection with the Acquisition.

Name	Common Shares	Severance Amount (CDN$)
Keith Spickelmier	327,500	280,600
Doug Manner	620,558	322,690
Eytan Uliel	1,564,885	813,750

The Severance Shares are expected to be issued pursuant to applicable prospectus exemptions under Canadian securities laws, and outside of the Company's equity incentive plan as a one-time inducement and/or severance payment paid in accordance with the terms of Section 6.4 of TSXV Policy 4.4. – Security Based Compensation. The Severance Shares are expected to be subject to a hold period of four months and one day from the date of issuance, expiring on 24 April 2026, pursuant to the policies of the TSXV and Canadian securities laws.

Each Recipient other than Mr. Uliel is a "related party" of the Company within the meaning of MI 61-101 by virtue of their roles as executive chairman (Keith Spickelmier) and director (Doug Manner) of Sintana. As a result, the issuance of the Severance Shares is expected to constitute a "related party transaction" (as defined in MI 61-101). Despite being a "related party transaction" (as defined in MI 61-101), the issuance of the Severance Shares is expected to be exempt from formal valuation and minority shareholder approval under MI 61-101 by the application of the exemptions under Sections 5.5(b) and 5.7(1)(a) of MI 61-101 as the fair market value of the Severance Shares (and the consideration therefor), insofar as it involves interested parties, are not expected to exceed 25% of the Company's market capitalization.

The issuance of the Severance Shares is not expected to be a Non-Arm's Length Party Transaction under the policies of the TSXV.

The TSXV has conditionally approved the issuance of the Severance Shares, and final approval remains subject to the filing and dissemination of a comprehensive news release.
